Summary

The preparation of this dictionary, which will comprise 6,000 entries, is now at the stage of textual editing, while at the same time hundreds of entries are being corrected. A typical page is annexed. Due for publication in 1993, it will contain 34 pages of maps of Quebec, bearing all the official names of the entries. There will also be 450 illustrations, half of them in colour. The Publications du Québec will publish and market the dictionary. The book will consist of roughly 1,400 pages in 27.5 cm x 21 cm (10.5 in. x 8.125 in.) format. The price will be about $100.
